

SolveIT Software Signs Three-Year Agreement with Dentsu

TOKYO, JAPAN and ADELAIDE, SOUTH AUSTRALIA, 14 February, 2006 – SolveIT Software Pty Ltd, a leading provider of enterprise software for supply & demand optimisation and predictive modelling, announced today that it has signed a three-year agreement with Dentsu Inc. (TSE: 4324) headquartered in Tokyo, Japan.

“Under the terms of the agreement, SolveIT Software will provide Dentsu with advanced software solutions and consulting services in the areas of multi-objective optimization and forecasting,” said Dr. Martin Schmidt, Chief Technology Officer, SolveIT Software.

Dentsu Inc., founded in 1901, is the largest advertising company brand and the fifth largest marketing and communications organization in the world. Based in Tokyo, Dentsu offers national, multinational and global clients the most comprehensive range of advertising and marketing services through its unique “Total Communications Services” approach. Dentsu has pioneered and set global standards for integrated communications, which in latter years have been adopted by a number of major international networks. The group has more than 6,000 clients and 15,302 employees* in both Japan and in its offices overseas. Consolidated billings (net sales) for fiscal year 2004 were recorded at 1,910.4 billion yen. Dentsu is publicly quoted on the Tokyo Stock Exchange. For more information please visit: www.dentsu.com *As of March 31, 2005

“We are very happy to add one of the largest advertising corporations in the world as a client,” said Mr. Matthew Michalewicz, Chief Executive Officer, SolveIT Software. “Given our strong record of using Artificial Intelligence technologies to optimize complex business processes, we look forward to providing Dentsu with a competitive edge.”

Other recent successes of SolveIT Software include the signing of several key customers, including ABP, which is the world’s second largest pension fund with €168 billion (AU$270 billion) under management, and the addition of Dr. Fred Glover, world-famous authority on Artificial Intelligence, to the company’s Scientific Advisory Board.
